

2022 CABERNET SAUVIGNON - PASO ROBLES

ABOUT THE SEASON

The 2022 season in Paso Robles was a study in contrast—intense heat met with cool resilience, leading to an early harvest that shaped a wine with undeniable depth and sophistication. Each bottle captures the warmth and energy of the season, balancing bold character with a refined, effortless allure. It's a true reflection of Paso Robles, where nature's extremes come together in perfect harmony, creating something both modern and timeless.

TASTING NOTE

This wine has a rich, layered texture with a well-rounded structure that provides depth and presence. The acidity is perfectly balanced, adding a refreshing lift that enhances its complexity. It finishes clean and lingers, with subtle notes that unfold gradually. There's an effortless harmony between the elements, with each layer complementing the next. It's a wine that feels complete, offering both depth and freshness, making it easy to appreciate from start to finish.
